

By the end of this unit pupils will know that:

▲	Christians believe that it is important to say thank you to God for the harvest.
▲	Jewish people also celebrate harvest and this is called Sukkot.
■	Christians believe that helping others is part of putting their faith into action.
■	there are Christian charities working worldwide to improve the lives of people living in countries where the harvest has failed.

By the end of this unit pupils are expected to be able to:

▲	talk, using religious language, about Harvest Festival Celebrations.
▲	express feelings about the issues raised by Christian Aid/Tear Fund materials etc.
▲	ask questions about their own and others' experiences.
▲	talk, using religious language, about the ways in which the Jewish festival of Sukkot is celebrated.

I know:	✓	?
that the food we eat comes from all around the world.
that not everyone in the world enjoys a good harvest.
about Christian charities that are helping people who live in poor countries.
that Christians believe it is good to say thank you to God for the harvest.
that the Jewish festival of harvest is called Sukkot.
I can:	✓	?
say what I feel about some of the things we talked about during the harvest festival project.
think of ways in which I can help others.
tell you about the ways in which Jewish people celebrate harvest.
talk about the harvest festival celebrations that took place in my school.
